Overview

This stipend program is federally-funded through a partnership between the Los Angeles Department of Children and Family Services (LA DCFS) and seven local MSW programs, including USC's, under the Title IV-E provision of the Social Security Act. The two-year stipend of $37,000 is available to students who are committed to pursuing a career in the field of public child welfare in Los Angeles County.

Please keep in mind that this program relies on external funding every year.

Qualifications and Requirements

To qualify and remain eligible for the LA DCFS Public Child Welfare Stipend, recipients must do the following:

1. Be a full-time student entering the first year of study in the MSW program.
2. Be enrolled in the “on-the-ground” (OTG) MSW program.
   a. Due to the strict contract requirements and attendance at specialized academic courses and field practicum expectations, VAC students are not eligible for this stipend program.
3. Select the Department of Children, Youth and Families (CYF).
4. Maintain good academic standing with a 3.0 or better GPA and satisfactory performance in field placement.
5. Pass a public child welfare elective course.
6. Attend an orientation in August before classes start, on or near UPC.
7. Participate in a specialized stipend seminar throughout the academic year. Attendance is mandatory. Date and time of stipend seminar is subject to change.
8. Attend a trauma-informed training in August prior to the second year of field placement beginning. This training will take place before classes begin, on or near UPC.

Payback Commitment

Students who participate in the LA DCFS stipend program agree to work at the Los Angeles DCFS for two calendar years after graduation. Graduates will be placed in the DCFS offices with the highest need for staff. The goal is for LA DCFS graduates to further their public child welfare career beyond the two years of employment payback and adopt a leadership role to become effective agents of change.

Additional Information about Interning with LA DCFS

LA DCFS is the largest child welfare agency in the United States. Established in 1984, DCFS is designed to provide a wide range of protective and social services to residents of Los Angeles County. The Department’s primary focus is ensuring the safety of children and families, while focusing on the maintenance of family systems, the reunification of families who have children placed in foster care, and securing permanent homes for children who need this service through permanency planning. The Department operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

University of Southern California
A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A CHILDREN’S SOCIAL WORKER (INTERN)

As a LA DCFS intern, you will be responsible for:

- Meeting the ongoing safety needs of clients who are under LA DCFS supervision.
- Providing psychosocial assessments and services to families of diverse cultures.
- Educating, advising, advocating and supporting involuntary clients who may present as ambivalent, angry, fearful, and/or traumatized and who may be living in difficult environments and social situations.
- Being a referral/resource for clients, and networking with the legal, medical, educational, and psychological service systems that impact the client’s situation.
- Knowing, understanding, and adhering to the legal and ethical boundaries that define social work case management at LA DCFS.
- Documenting all client contacts and services provided as well as creating case plans and writing court reports within expected time frames.

On any given day, you may find yourself:

- Dealing with an unexpected casework or administrative issue.
- Prioritizing your client’s needs with the demands from court and the expectations of managers.
- Providing crisis intervention services to clients regarding child abuse referrals, child removal/replacement, child death or injury, and financial or housing problems.
- Assessing and servicing client situations involving serious physical or sexual abuse.

Possible Benefits:

- Ability to create positive change in the lives of children and families.
- Ability to interface with diverse populations, situations, and organizations.
- Ability to develop skills and work toward a professional social work degree.
- Ability to promote and/or be reassigned to various job functions.

Application Process

Applications are due on May 31, 2018 by 5:00 p.m. and are evaluated and scored. The highest scoring applicants will be contacted for an interview. Interviews will be held during the month of June and early July. Awards will be made on the basis of the quality of the application and the interview. Applicants must complete the packet in full.

Please note that if you receive this award, it will impact your financial aid package. A representative from the School’s Scholarship Programs Office will meet with all awardees during the orientation to discuss any questions that you may have related to the stipend.

Questions: Please contact Dr. Debra Waters-Roman at watersro@usc.edu