TEACHING

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Science of Social Work
(SOWK 542, MSW)

Led team that completely developed revised foundation level course focused on the roles of science, research, and data use within the Social Work profession. Course first implemented school-wide in Fall, 2015.

Social Work Research Methods I
(SOWK 562, MSW)

Taught 2010-2014 due to leadership responsibilities with course and research sequence:

- Developed measurable student learning outcomes and major assessment tools
- Converted course to online format for USC Virtual Academic Center
- Re-designed course curriculum (syllabus, assignments)
- Currently building technology-enhanced connections with school research clusters

Chair, Research Sequence (MSW),
2011-2014

- Leading advocate for strategies to integrate research with all aspects of MSW

training

- Convened and chaired monthly research sequence faculty meetings
- Organized annual retreats to enhance course structure
- Coordination/supervision of 20+ faculty teaching SOWK 562 each semester

Research Methods in Social Work
(SOWK 762, doctoral)

Taught 2011-2014 due to experience preparing doctoral students for competitive research trajectories:

- Updated course syllabus, goals, assignments
- Led integration efforts with other 1st year doctoral courses

Advanced Multivariate Statistics
(SOWK 764, doctoral)

Taught 2016-2020:

- Updated course syllabus, goals, assignments
- Integrated with analytic courses pre and post SOWK 764

Writing Successful Dissertation Research Grants
(SOWK 765, doctoral)

Taught 2018, 2020:

- Developed core course structure during tutorial with students in 2017

Guest Lecturer

Research Methods in Social Work I
(SOWK 762, doctoral)

Evidence-Based Field Practice Seminar (MSW)
