

Master of Social Work Transfer Credit Policies:

The USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work follows the transfer credit policies set by the USC Degree Progress Department (see USC Graduate Catalog).

- Graduate transfer credit will only be allowed for courses (1) from an accredited graduate school, (2) of a quality of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 grading scale, (3) constituting a fair and reasonable equivalent to current USC course work at the graduate level and (4) logically fitting into the program for the degree.
- Graduate transfer credit will not be granted for life experience.
- Transfer work must have been completed within seven years of admission to a USC master's degree program to be applied toward that degree.
- The maximum number of transfer credits that may be applied toward a master's degree; 15 units in programs requiring 41 or more units

In addition, here are transfer credit policies specific to the Master of Social Work program at the Suzanne Dworak-Peck School USC School of Social Work:

- Original institutions must be schools of Social Work accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE).
- Student must be or have been enrolled and matriculating through a Master of Social Work program at the original institution.
- The maximum amount of transferable credits is 15 semester units.
- Transfer credit is not guaranteed, even if a course meets the eligibility requirements.
- Coursework is evaluated on a course-by-course basis by designated faculty members, with the approval of the Vice Dean.
- There is no petition process for denied transfer credits.

Fieldwork is evaluated by the Director of Field Education on factors such as evidence of a field education learning agreement, an adequate comprehensive skills evaluation in relation to CSWE competencies, and documented evidence of the completion of a concurrent Social Work Practice class and Integrative Seminar. If granted, credit is computed by the number of supervised clock hours completed.
