

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE In Visual Social Work

About The Graduate Certificate

This certificate introduces students to visual approaches for understanding, communicating about and creating innovative solutions for responding to complex social justice issues.

The Visual Social Work certificate is designed for students interested in building a skillset in visual methods of inquiry to develop a deeper understanding of the human experience. These methods include digital storytelling, photo voice, textiles, documentary film, oral testimony, and street art.

For More Information Visit:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WdVK9NSOT_s

This Fall, the USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work is pleased to announce our new graduate certificate in Visual Social Work.

Designated For

- Our Visual Social Work certificate is available to USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work graduate students (MSW and DSW), graduate students from other disciplines, and to employed professionals.

Join Our information Sessions

- Wednesday, August 3rd, at 7 pm (PST). Please join us at: <https://zoom.us/j/99328168205>
- Thursday, August 4th, at 1 pm (PST). Please join us at: <https://zoom.us/j/92258609384>