

Overview

The Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) stipend program is a federally-funded partnership between Los Angeles County DCFS and several local MSW programs, including USC's, under the Title IV-E provision of the Social Security Act. The two-year stipend of $52,000 is available to students who are committed to pursuing a career in public child welfare in Los Angeles County.

Please keep in mind that this program relies on external funding every year.

Qualifications and Requirements

To qualify and remain eligible for the LA DCFS Public Child Welfare Stipend, recipients must do the following:

1. Be able to complete your final internship with the Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services in a Los Angeles County DCFS Office.
2. Maintain good academic standing with a 3.0 or better GPA and satisfactory performance in practicum placement.
3. Pass a public child welfare elective course.
4. Attend an orientation in August before classes begin.
5. Participate in specialized training sessions throughout the academic year. Attendance is mandatory, and these training sessions are held in person on the USC campus. Date and time of training sessions are subject to change.
6. Attend a trauma-informed training.

DCFS Stipend Program Opportunities

During the stipend program, all students will be placed at a DCFS regional office for their second internship placement.

Payback Commitment

Students who participate in the LA DCFS stipend program agree to work at the Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services for two calendar years after graduation. Graduates will be placed in the DCFS offices with the highest need for staff. The goal is for DCFS graduates to further their public child welfare career beyond the two years of employment payback and adopt a leadership role to become effective agents of change.

Additional Information about Interning with LA County DCFS

LA County DCFS is the largest public child welfare agency in the United States. Established in 1984, DCFS is designed to provide a wide range of protective and social services to residents of Los Angeles County. The Department's primary focus is ensuring the safety of children and families, while focusing on the maintenance of family systems, the reunification of families who have children placed in resource care, and securing permanent homes for children who need this service through permanency planning. The Department operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A CHILDREN'S SOCIAL WORKER (INTERN)

As a DCFS Intern, you will be responsible for:

- Meeting the ongoing safety needs of clients who are under DCFS supervision.
- Providing psychosocial assessments and services to families of diverse cultures.
- Educating, advising, advocating, and supporting involuntary clients who may present as ambivalent, angry, fearful, and/or traumatized and who may be living in difficult environments and social situations.
- Being a referral/resource for clients, and networking with the legal, medical, educational, and psychological service systems that impact the client's situation.
- Knowing, understanding, and adhering to the legal and ethical boundaries that define social work case management at DCFS.
- Documenting all client contacts and services provided as well as creating case plans and writing court reports within expected time frames.

On any given day, you may find yourself:

- Dealing with an unexpected casework or administrative issue.
- Prioritizing your client's needs with the demands from court and the expectations of managers.
- Providing crisis intervention services to clients regarding child abuse referrals, child removal/replacement, child death or injury, and financial or housing problems.
- Assessing and servicing client situations involving serious physical or sexual abuse.

Possible Benefits:

- Ability to create positive change in the lives of children and families.
- Ability to interface with diverse populations, situations, and organizations.
- Ability to develop skills and work towards a professional social work degree.
- Ability to promote and/or be reassigned to various job functions.

Application Process

The priority deadline for applications is April 1st, 2025 and the final application deadline is May 31st, 2025. Applicants are encouraged to apply by the priority deadline.
