

Doctor of Social Innovation (DSI)

USC Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work

Full-time Enrollment, Online (9 Semesters)

Curriculum Snapshot

The Doctor of Social Innovation (DSI) requires completion of 42 units in the School of Social Work. The following course sequence represents the requirements for the DSI and may be subject to change.

Semester 1: 6 units

SOWK 704: Complex Social Problems (3 Units)

SOWK 706: Leadership for Intervention Implementation in Complex Systems (3 Units)

Semester 2: 6 units

SOWK 713: Research Methods for Intervention Design and Evaluation (3 Units)

SOWK 711: Design Lab for Social Innovation I (3 Units)

Semester 3: 6 units

SOWK 720: Leadership and Communication for Sustaining Interventions (3 Units)

SOWK 769: Applied Data Analysis for Social Impact Leadership (3 Units)

Semester 4: 6 units

SOWK 707: Financial Management for Social Change (3 Units)

SOWK 721: Data Driven Decision Making in Social Services (3 Units)

Semester 5: 6 units

SOWK 716: Complex Social Problem Identification (3 Units)

SOWK 718: Design-Informed Evaluation for Social Innovation (3 Units)

Semester 6: 6 units

SOWK 717: Stakeholder Engagement and Solutions (3 Units)

SOWK 723: Design Lab for Social Innovation II (3 Units)

Semester 7: 2 units

SOWK 725A: Preparatory Scholarship for Capstone (2 Units)

Semester 8: 2 units

SOWK 725B: Preparatory Scholarship for Capstone (2 Units)

Semester 9: 2 units

SOWK 725C: Preparatory Scholarship for Capstone (2 Units)